

I have been an active CW ham operator for almost 53 years. I participated in emergency CW traffic handling during several hurricanes and tornados, some of which required low power, thus CW was the only practical mode. CW should continue to be required for ham HF licences, with 20 WPM for Extra Class.